FAMILY REUNION

Copied from newspaper article from Leora (Dot) Brown

Estimated date of the reunion around 1900.

Pioneer history is always interesting and especially so when it concerns those who helped to make our own local history. If the curtain could be lifted and our own vision cleared, we could find many praiseworthy facts studying the lives of our own pioneers.

Some of those sturdy settlers were Henry Brown and family who immigrated to Tuscarawas County, Ohio from Somerset County, Pennsylvania in the year 1844. Two years later they moved to Indiana. The father bought 80 acres of land in Monroe Township. At this time there were few inhabitants in the township and not a garden spot cleared where the town of Monroeville now exists. The vicissitudes of such a life left visible traces on their physical forms but their sweet disposition and their loyal principles were qualities which could well be emulated.

This family consisted of twelve children, eight boys and four girls. Two of those died in infancy and two in manhood. Alexander F. died in Iowa and Jacob R. in Monroeville. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown were grandparents of sixty-six grandchildren. Four brothers spent several years of their lives in the army.

The family met at the old homestead Wednesday, August 15th and spent a pleasant day in recalling past incidents and talking about their youthful associations. Of the family there now exists Mesdames Polly Barrone, Christina May, and Lucinda Brown, Messrs. Henry Clinton Brown, John Henry Brown, William R. Brown, Nathaniel P. Brown, and James Weiler Brown. To the sore disappointment of his brothers and sisters, word came that James Weiler Brown of Lemars, Iowa could not attend the reunion. Though as he thought this would be their last family reunion here, he expressed in this letter that hoped to attend the final reunion. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Klinger of Fort Wayne were in attendance. As Mrs. Klinger lived with this family for several years, and she has been considered an adopted sister.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clinton Brown were given a farewell greeting by their many friends when they left for their Wisconsin home.

This 1820 census shows Alexander and wife, and son along with a colored family, man, woman, and son all about the same age as Alexander and his family. All adults in the 1776-1794 age bracket and the boys both in the 1800-1810 age bracket. These are free-colored and not slaves. Floyd has this as Alexander, Sr., but age seems incorrect for that. If Sr. the son would be William; if Jr. the son would be Henry A. Brown

I redid my Alexander list as I had missed a few on the previous one. It looks like William is pretty well set as living in Dublin and staying there. I will let you come to your own

Virginia census shows ^{an} Adam Ridenour in Shenandoah County VA 1810 along with another Adam, George & Henry. May be named for grandfather or gr. grandfather. ~~Note Adam above. He may be Marcus's son~~ More likely Lewis's son

Still listed in 1830 in VA

MARCUS must have stopped in Ohio before coming to IN

AS wife from there - but possibly not as children are all born in IN. She could have been here too. Children list father as from Ohio. Probably a mistake.

Actually Lewis Ridenour was my ancestor father of "Maggie" who married Valentine L.

Hi Betty,

I am up and running with Windows 7. It takes a little bit to find everything and to get used to the new look but so far so good.

Saturday morning I still had the old computer and I had just opened an email from a friend in Florida and a box popped up that my computer was being attacked by a virus and to run the virus scan that appeared on the screen. I thought - OH NO! So I closed out of everything and shut down the computer. Bill tried to run the virus scan but it wasn't doing anything. I called the Geek Squad at Best Buy and they said it sounded like a new virus that they were seeing a lot of. They said it mostly comes through Facebook and MySpace. Neither of which I use. So it is hard to say where it actually come from. They said to bring it in and they would look at it. Since my computer was old, it wasn't worth the money to try and get the virus out. Long story short - all my files were okay. Whew!! So we left it there so they could filter out the virus and transfer all my files to a new hard drive. I have a powerpoint to give tomorrow in New Haven and thank goodness I had burned it on a CD before the virus hit. They say these viruses attack the system and not the files.

So now I have a better hard drive backup, battery backup system and new virus scan protection. We had Verizon before and they said with the new viruses they can still get through just about any spyware. Anyway I'm glad none of my files were lost and this computer is much faster and has a much bigger memory and hard drive. I was long over due to replace the old one. So now I have time to learn it before starting to work on the schoolhouse book. I guess things happen for a reason.

How you are getting along with yours?

I have been busy working outside this summer and haven't had too much time for genealogy. But I did find a little more info on the Downs family. Seems like most of the Buffalo records are off line and I have been looking for John's 2 sisters. One day I was just messing around and decided to Google one of them. To my surprise their name popped right up and it was an index the Erie Co. Historical Society had compiled. So it gave her date of death notice and I ordered the death certificate and received it within a week. I was shocked. I have been waiting for one from Pennsylvania for over 2 months. It gave the parents names that I was hoping to see and I'm pretty sure I have found the family in Ireland. I found a potential cousin on Ancestry who lives in London and hopefully her great grandmother is a sister to John. Her mother lives in Ireland and this gal is going to visit her in October and also look up a cousin and do some research. This should prove one way or the other if I have the right family. I have run out of US records to order and search for. I don't think I will make it to Ireland, Pennsylvania or Buffalo so I'm hoping this gal really is a cousin.

That's all for now.

I started the new year knee-deep in working on the schoolhouse book. I finally got Aboite into a good rough draft. Only 19 more townships to go! Some will go pretty fast as I have very little. I'm happy with the format I'm using in Publisher. It is almost like a powerpoint where I can add and delete pages in a one-page format. The Monroe TP book I did in 2005 was in a two-page format and it was a nightmare when it came to adding and deleting. So far so good with the new computer.

Our laptop that I had purchased 3-1/2 years ago quite working before Christmas and it was going to cost way too much to fix it. Bill was using it in his office. He went to Best Buy and got a set up just like mine. He would use mine occasionally and liked the 23" monitor. So now I don't have to share.

In reading your Christmas letter, I agree with you that you do have the best website around. Other historical societies should sit up and take notice of your site. I have been to many society websites where I couldn't find much at all. I'm sure it would be difficult to find someone to take over the website.

I'm not sure about the cemetery records. Seems like other people are putting things out there. When I was on the ACGSI board, they decided to stop printing the cemetery books because the info was available for free and because it was getting too costly to print the books. Ricky, who was in charge of the books, never came to the meetings so the sales suffered. They are just selling out what they have and then they are posted on the ACGSI website. Vol. 5 (Lake, Wash. Perry) and Vol. 6 (Spfd., Maumee, Milan and St. Joe) are on the website now. I know D.A.R. is working on putting the cemeteries online also. Even with ACGSI selling the books and the books being available at ACPL, it doesn't stop people from walking the cemeteries, compiling, and posting the records.

I'm sure the Voyles will appreciate the CD of our group. As we found out on our visit down south, it is difficult for some to share the family history. I usually get a Christmas card from Jean but didn't this year. Cards in general were down about half. I haven't talk to Aunt Helen about Jean lately. She usually has the scoop.

My mother-in-law is settled in her one-bedroom now just a few doors from Aunt Helen. We are sure glad the apartment finally came open. She had her name on a waiting list a while before going to Woodview. When she fell and got out of rehab, she had to take the first available which was a studio on the second floor.

It is hard to visit my mother-in-law and not see Aunt Helen and vice versa. Word travels fast if I'm coming for a visit. I do need to visit Aunt Helen though. Bill and I stopped in before Christmas and she was busy trying to get her cards out. She never did find the box of photos she was looking for when Margaret was in town. I know of some of the photos because I had borrowed them a few years ago to make copies. I will take in my scrapbook and see if they are the ones she has been looking for. I am way behind on getting the rest of the photos scrapbooked. The Downs project and the schoolhouses have taken all my time lately. Scrapbooking is on my list when I finish the schoolhouse project. Won't run out of projects anytime soon.

Take care.

Subject : Photo of Duley School

 1 attachment

To : wfitch5413@frontier.com

Hi Betty,

Attached is the photo of the Duley school I took in 2006. I knew it was a school then but didn't know there was brick under the siding. I had talked to the previous owner, Diana Otis, and she told me about the original wood floor in the living area with the holes still in the floor from the desks. She also found parts of school desks and ink bottles in the crawl space. She took them with her when she moved. We never talked about it being brick though. Quality Crafted Homes bought the schoolhouse from her and rent it out and built her a new home down the street. I had sent her a copy of the interior with the stove and she was really excited about that.

When I was first looking for the Duley school, I drove by it a couple of times because I was looking for a brick school. They were working on Union Chapel then and I remember driving around barricades to try and find it. The people were not home but I took a photo anyway. My dad was with me that day and I remember a lot of dogs in the windows of the home and also dogs in a pen out back. Glad they were tied up. Just another one of our experiences in my schoolhouse travels! I should write another book about all the adventures I had finding the schoolhouses!

We survived the eye treatment today. It was a 2-1/2 hour ordeal for a 1 minute lazer treatment. Mom had the cataract removed in 2008 and this was to zap the film that had developed over it. She had her other eye done in 2007 but has absolutely no memory of it. She is having much anxiety and some memory problems. The anxiety is much worse though than the memory and the family doctor will not treat her anxiety. He just tells her to stop worrying about stuff. That doesn't work at all. So from here on out I will have to be with her for every medical, etc. appointment. She just gets so worked up about it before she goes. She had her visit with the cardiologist last week and everything was fine there. She has been on 80 mg of Lipitor since 2005. Amazingly she has had no side effects and they do check her liver frequently. It is working so the doctor will not change a thing.

I'm glad you sent the Klinker info to June. I'm sure she really appreciates it. You had told me before that you were going to send it to her. It is too bad about all of the family things that Jean has and won't share. Hard to say what will happen to all of it. I know when we were there what a challenge it was to get the copies of that photo album. So I guess we were lucky to get those. That little copier sure has been handy! I need to make a trip to Ossian to copy some schoolhouse photos. The copier will go along. I did purchase a hand held scanner which I will take too. I am very impressed with the quality of the scans. I wanted ACPL to make me some scans of the 1898 map book in color but so far haven't heard anything. The History Center offered to loan me one of their extra copies so I can bring it home and scan it. It is too large for my Office Jet and was also too big for ACPL's new scanner. They took me to the back room and showed it to me and they would have to scan it twice. So I figure the reason they won't is because of the labor costs and I heard recently they were having to make some cuts.

I need to get in to see Aunt Helen. We did make it to see my Uncle Dick (Mom's brother) for his 87th birthday last week who is in assisted living at Canterbury. My mother-in-law has been sick with a bad cold so I haven't see her lately either.

Newspaperarchives has the full pages of the newspapers with obits, etc. You can go to the website and search the collection. When I first went to the website, I had typed in Downs and the partial obit from John's brother popped up and that got me going with a subscription after I also found a lot of FW newspapers in the collection. I started out with a 3-month trial to see if I was really going to use it and I have.

I always say things happen for a reason. So there is a reason why we get into these projects. For me it is because I enjoy it otherwise I wouldn't be doing it. It also balances out the stuff I "have to do". I will be giving a

So now I have to figure out that to do with the display case we had built and all the memorabilia. I put in a request to move it to Heritage when they get the school remodeled to accommodate the elementary children. We will see what happens.

Yes, spring is around the corner. I saw some bulbs I planted last fall peeking through. I almost had to use a pick ax to dig a hole to plant them. Sure have had enough moisture this winter to replenish the deficit from last summer.

Take care.

Jane said it would be o.k. for you to send one picture of Aunt Helen and Aunt Irene to her e-mail. She would also for you to identify in the RE: line so she knows it is you sending it. jstier1980@frontier.com

It was a nice party yesterday. When Aunt Helen had a hunch she might have something, she might have been disappointed otherwise. Earl was thinking. It was nice seeing relatives - a short notice was probably better than a long one.

I really do like your new hair style - a wonderful color and not much time getting to look neat! I am still going permanents every 4 months. My hair is getting thinner. I told you about asking Earl about Orpha (Parkisons) - we will probably never get to see her again, but we have good remembrances.

Talk to you later. Thanks for sending the picture. My computer is old and I do not have the Internet. I had it for 1 year and decided it was not worth my money because I did not use it.

Hi Betty,

Louis Ridenour

Since Cousin Toni is persistent about getting the McConnel photo identified, and my curiosity got the best of me, I took a chance and called Dallas Savage. Another one with the "disease." We talked for about 45 minutes and oh my, did he have stories about the McConnel family - all good!

Age in 1870: 47

Birth Year: abt 1823

Birthplace: Virginia

His siblings and I have had 1870s on the Savage family history and they traced them back to England. Anyway, sounds like he might have one of the two family photos I have. I am sending him a copy of both to see how many he can identify.

He described his dad James as looking like an indian because of his black hair, high cheek bones and tanned skin during the summer. He looks like Halice was in the photo I sent you naming Jim Savage and Wealthy Thompson as Adema's neighbors. Dallas said that Jim and family were very close with Adema. Dallas also remembered Naomi and Moy Don Get, and the laundry they ran on Columbia St.

Cousin Toni knows that the reunions started out Townsend McConnel and ended up McConnel-Savage. She attended several growing up but like me we were clueless on who the relatives were. I don't remember ever attending one, and they went until about 1970. We went to the Klinker and Brown reunions.

Dallas wants to know "everything" about the McConnel family. Dallas and his wife will be traveling the month of Sept. so hopefully before they go on their trip he can solve the mystery of Thomas and Eva Savage are in the photo.

He described the one photo, and it sure sounds like Esther Ridenour. He said his dad would have been about 14. I have John Downs holding Naomi but maybe the photo is dated about 1901 instead of 1905 and John is holding Esther. The little girl has light hair so that is why I am having a hard time believing it is Esther. Naomi was born in 1903.

Betty,

Yes, I will let you know how everything turns out with Dallas Quentin. Through Ancestry I was able to identify 2 more people on the photo - Carrie Bell Savage and her husband Frank Ball of Monroeville. Probably all the Savage children are in the photo. I have made my guesses so we will see how close I come when I hear back from Dallas.

I have attached a couple photos of the Monroeville Cubs. Not many left from the 1948 team. Stan Shaffer is one of them and doing pretty well as far as I know. The daughter of Coach Milliner has had a couple of meetings in Monroeville with the former players, cheerleaders, and whoever was interested in hearing stories. I went to one but Stan was in Florida at that time.

Thanks again.

March 1867 - Volume IV, Number 3 - Herald of Truth Pages 46-48:

On the 18th of January, in Rockingham. Co., Virginia, of Pneumonia, ANNA, widow of Christian BRENNEMAN, dec'd, and daughter of Pre. Henry Shank, who was one of the first ministers of the Mennonite Church in the county, aged 71 years, 8 months, and 8 days. She was buried on the 20th. Funeral services were conducted by John Geil, Samuel Coffmann, and Jacob Miller, from Rev. 14:13. The deceased was a consistent member of the Mennonite Church about fifty years. She was sick only a few days. The last thirty six hours of her life she lay as though she was asleep. She breathed out her last breath in calmness. We mourn her departure but we mourn not as those who have no hope; for we have reason to believe, that she was at peace with her Maker, and is now enjoying the reward of the blessed. O! what a consolation it is in the hour of death, if we have the comforting assurance that, when we go hence, we shall enter into the rest prepared for the children of God! We, too, are traveling to our eternal home, and we know not in what hour the messenger may call for us; for God is no respecter of persons, and persons are often taken away in the twinkling of an eye; therefore, we should try to be ready; for "in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Anna seems to be living alone, keeping house, at age 65. Born Virginia. She is living next to an Isaac Wenger family, whose wife is Lydia, 32, with several children, one which is Annie who is 11 years old. It is possible that she might be boarding 3 young men as they have the same dwelling number, but a different family number. And they are farm laborers.

A Peter Brenneman 57 and his wife Mary (found also in the burial records) were living not far away. They had several children in the census.

It appears that Rebeckah Morgan must have died early, perhaps without children. He married second to Sarah , by whom he had at least three children, she was apparently the widow of Thomas Harriss. In prerogative court records, in the Estate of Thomas Harriss, the Administratrix is listed as "Sarah Rabbitt, wife of William Rabbitt"

Rockingham is right next to West Virginia, but is still quite a long way from Brooke County. May be an error here. Brooke County is in a narrow strip of land that is between Ohio and Pennsylvania. Need a map of Brooke County.

Of James Black

They had a daughter, Mary Jane Rabbit, who married James F. Shaffer
James and Mary had a son, Valentine L. Shaffer, who was my great grandfather
Valentine married Margaret Lydia Ridenour and they had daughter, Lydia Shaffer
Lydia Shaffer married Joseph Newton Brown, my grandfather
They had Guy Brown, who is my father
Of course, Guy and Mary Brown, had me "Betty Lou"

Hannah was born in 1798 and died in 1854. She is buried at Brown Cemetery on the old Henry Brown farm. The Rabbits and Blacks were very early settlers of Monroe Township. After Hannah died, it appears that husband Joseph, remarried to a Mary Barber in 1856. Mary died in 1861 and is buried at the Brown Cemetery also. After that time we find a marriage for Joseph Rabbit and Sarah Rice in Decatur, Adams Co., IN. One researcher says that Joseph is buried in Adams County. I do not have the cemetery name as yet. So those of the family buried in the Brown Cemetery were Hannah, Joseph's 1st wife, Mary, Joseph's 2nd wife, and Joseph Jr. the son of Hannah and Joseph. Also an infant who probably belongs to Joseph Rabbit, Jr. and his wife who was Mary Jane Shaffer, daughter of Jabez Shaffer. Joseph Jr. died at the age of 29, but Mary Jane his wife, lived until 1923. She also remarried.
